

How to Talk About Jesus
Personal Evangelism in a Skeptical World

Jesus has given His church the mission of spreading the gospel throughout the world (Matthew 28:19-20). As believers, this gospel has come to us, and we now have a desire to share it with others. We may even feel a burden to do so. Yet, there are perceived obstacles that we face. Unlike times past, the Church has a diminishing reputation in the eyes of some. Christianity seems less and less plausible. We also struggle with our own fears of rejection or not being able to answer a difficult question. In this study, we will work together to become more natural, thoughtful, and effective in our witness to others, as we seek to be faithful in sharing Jesus in our daily lives.
